Behaviour System

- We use the Gem Project to reward positive behaviour and learning attitudes.
- Children receive Gem cards and one child per class receives the weekly Gem certificate in Whole School Collective Worship.
- Failure to follow school rules results in a reflection card. If a reflection card is issued, part of break/lunch time will be missed.

Diamond Power

Ruby Power

I will be kind to others and make them feel good about themselves

Emerald Power

I will be a brave learner and always try my best. If I get things wrong or make a mistake I will bounce back and have another go.

Our Behaviour System

How it Works

- In each classroom there is a treasure chest, island and reflection rock.
- 3 reflection cards per half term results in a meeting with parents to discuss ways forward with their child's behaviour.
- Sometimes children may use a behaviour chart to help them focus on their behaviour.

Treasure Chest

Everyone starts here every day!

Step 1

First verbal warning. Your name may be written on the board. Get back in the Treasure Chest or you may lose some GT time

- Change your behaviour!

Step 2

Second verbal warning. Your name is moved to the island

- Change your behaviour!
- You may be asked to reflect on your behaviour
- You will miss 1-5min Golden Time &/or Break/Lunch

Step 3

Third warning. Your name is moved to Reflection Rock

- Change your behaviour!
- Reflect on your behaviour
- You will miss an additional 5-10min Golden Time &/or Break/Lunch
- You will also receive a reflection card.

Marking Policy

As a GOOD school we must continue to improve, stay current and be innovative.

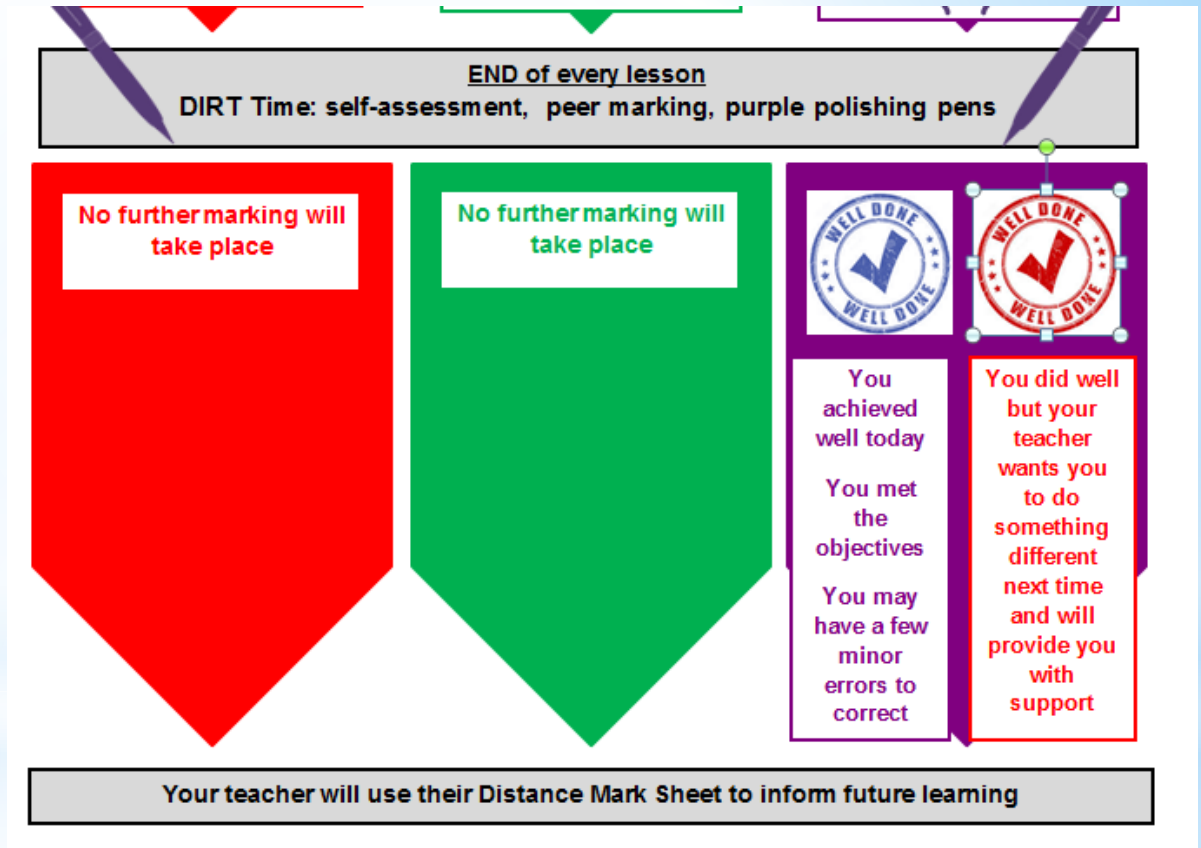

So we trailed the policy arising from the DfE review of Marking & Feedback led by Dawn Copping Headteacher @ Shaw Primary Academy - GOOD school

St Mary's Farnham Royal Church of England Primary School

Marking Policy

By adopting this policy our main aim is to enable teachers & support staff to spend more time with the children working, verbally feeding back, discussing, debating and doing what they do best - teaching!

How can you help? - Attendance

Make sure your child is in school! Attendance is crucial missing 1 day can mean they miss one crucial lesson/skill that leads in to the next day/week.

If your child misses school they may develop gaps in their learning which can result in lower achievement & progress, especially under the new curriculum which is more focused on breadth, depth & understanding.

Following Ofsted November 2015 this is a whole school focus

You child should only miss school if:

- They are too ill to attend
- You have advance permission from the school as it is an exceptional circumstance

How Can you help? - Homework

What are the benefits?

- To encourage both independent learning and discussion / research with members of the family in order to engage both the child and others in the home.
- It consolidates and reinforces skills in maths reasoning, writing and reading.

Homework should be an enjoyable learning activity!

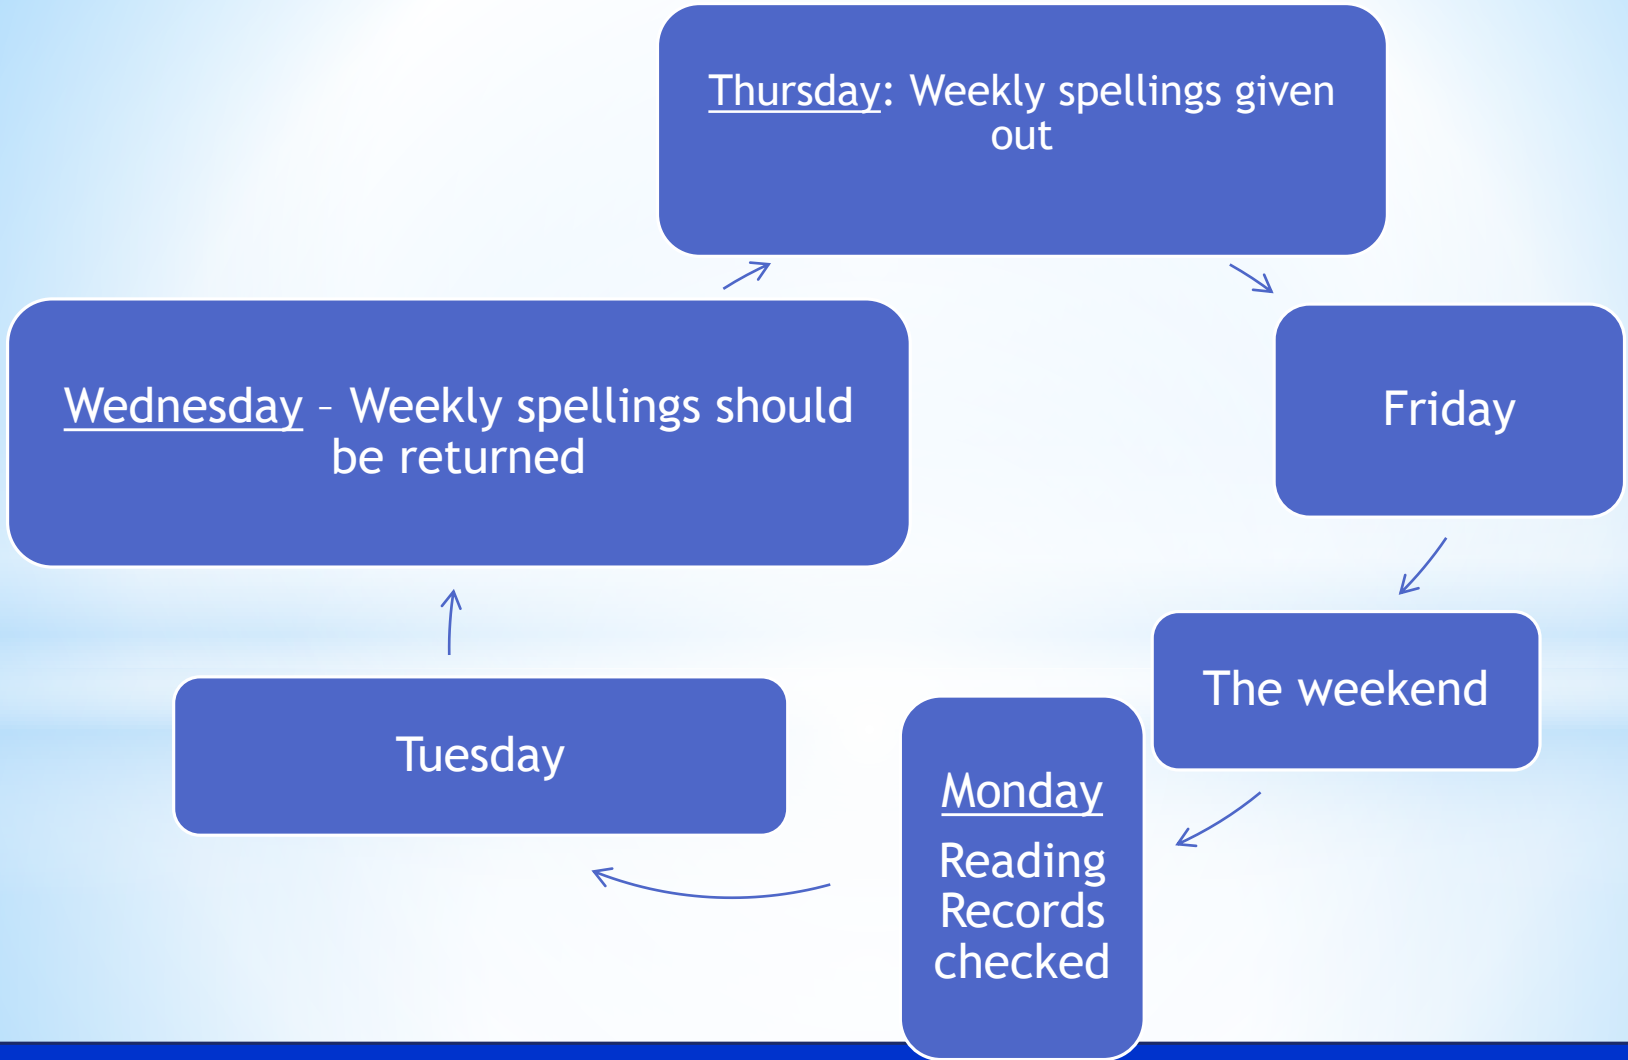

Use you child's Targets - think about what they need to practice.

Give them time to practice. It is not about just moving children on as quickly a possible. It is about breadth, depth and understanding too.

There are also really useful sections to help support all learning that happens at school:

Each class has their own secure Webpage created and updated by the class teachers. This is accessed by an individual login.

Children are encouraged to use this area to promote their learning through blogging, use targeted activities and links identified by teachers to support the learning in class.
