11	This school appreciates each and every student, going out their way to help students and make school like as easy as possible. I like the fact that the school community is a family where parents, student and teachers alike feel welcomed and understood. Further more the school allows my child to express themselves whilst in class teachers have high but achievable aspirations for my child, always available to talk .	11/9/2021 9:32 PM
12	Provides a caring and fun environment that helps my child to thrive.	11/9/2021 8:01 PM
13	The school has a fantastic ethos that I feel the children respond well to. The school promotes inclusivity and has always done well with involving families and the wider community in school activities. All the teachers are friendly and know the children well. During the pandemic the school did a brilliant job providing school work and provision for keyworker children in a tough situation, and have always kept parents well informed throughout on the current Covid situation within the school, which has been very reassuring.	11/9/2021 4:40 PM
