

Snowflake to Snow

The Snowflake poem describes a snowflake using descriptive words and comparing it to other things using the word 'like'.

You are going to create a similar poem about snow.

1. Think of as many things as you can that you know about snow.

Write answers to the questions below and any other ideas you have around the word snow.

How does it feel?

How does it fall?

Snow

What can you make with it?

What does it cover?

Let's Get Literary

2. Now take each idea and write either a simile (using the words 'like' or 'as') or a description about each one. Look at the examples below to help you.

Idea	Literary Description
Covers the landscape	Like a blanket over the land
Swirling around	Flakes like dancing ballerinas

How does it feel?

How does it fall?

SNOW

What does it cover?

Colour?

What can you make with it?

Snow

Snowflake to Winter Animals

The Snowflake poem describes a snowflake using descriptive words and comparing it to other things using the word 'like'.

You are going to create a similar poem about winter animals.

1. Think of as many things as you can that you know about winter animals.

Write answers to the questions below and any other ideas you have around the words Winter Animals.

What animals do you see in winter?

Colours/features?

Sounds?

Winter Animals

Which animals make people happy to see them?

What do they eat?

Let's Get Literary

2. Now take each idea and write either a simile (using the words 'like' or 'as') or a description about each one.

Look at the examples below to help you.

Idea	Literary Description
Robin on the windowsill	Smart in his red waistcoat, he stands like a guard
Deer	Mighty antlers reaching like tree branches

Which animals make people happy to see them?

What animals do you
see in winter?

Winter Animals

Colours/features?

What do they eat?

Sounds?

Winter Animals

Snowflake to Snow

The Snowflake poem describes a snowflake using descriptive words, metaphor and simile.

You are going to create a similar poem about snow.

1. Mind map as many things as you can that you know about snow.

You could think about how it looks, feels, moves, sounds, etc.

Write your ideas in the space below.

Let's Get Literary

2. Now take each idea and write either a simile (using the words 'like' or 'as') or a description including personification about each one. Look at the example below to help you.

Idea	Literary Description
Covers the landscape	Like a blanket over the land

Snowflake to Winter Animals

The Snowflake poem describes a snowflake using descriptive words and techniques such as simile.

You are going to create a similar poem about winter animals.

1. Mind map as many things as you can that you know about winter animals.

You could think about making a list of the animals.

Then consider how they eat, move, play, make sounds and if they are nocturnal or not. Do they bring joy?

Write your ideas around the words below.

Winter Animals

Let's Get Literary

2. Now take each idea and write either a simile (using the words 'like' or 'as') or a description including personification about each one.

Look at the example below to help you.

Idea	Literary Description
Robin on the windowsill	Smart in his red waistcoat, he stands like a guard

Snowflake to Snow

The Snowflake poem describes a snowflake using descriptive words, metaphor and simile.

You are going to create a similar poem about snow.

1. Mind map as many things as you can that you know about snow.

You could think about how it looks, feels, moves, sounds, etc.

Write your ideas in the space below.

Let's Get Literary

2. Now take each idea and write either a simile, a metaphor or a sentence including personification for each one.

Idea	Literary Description

Snowflake to Winter Animals

The Snowflake poem describes a snowflake using descriptive words, metaphor and simile.

You are going to create a similar poem about winter animals.

1. Mind map as many things as you can that you know about winter animals.

You could think about making a list of the animals.

Then consider how they eat, move, play, make sounds and if they are nocturnal or not. Do they bring joy?

Write your ideas around the words below.

Winter Animals

Let's Get Literary

2. Now take each idea and write either a simile, metaphor or a sentence using personification about each one.

Idea	Literary Description

